Hey Don,

Thanks for the updated information.
I really appreciate it!

I sent out about 230 mailings so far.
I plan to send out a couple hundred more on Monday morning.
Our postage machine ran out of tape.

Since we're having 3 consecutive meetings, we'll do about 450 this time around and do the rest for the other meetings.
Let me know what you think.

Thanks so much!! J

P.S. What would really help is if we can find their phone numbers, so that we can even call the property owners for a follow-up.

Yonah...

Here it is!! I didn't mean to drag this out so long. I also "un-hide" the mailing address information you'll be needing, so the spreadsheet may look a little strange. And I entered some sub totals on the far right column showing how many Petitions we'll need to get signed. We need to get everyone that pays $2,500 or more to sign or off-set with Petitions that pay less than that. The biggest 27 properties account for 21% of the Petition support we'll need; the largest 134 property owners' Petitions will qualify us for the Ballot.

RE: database with highest property ownership

I'm going to forward this database to the City right now too so that they can begin checking my data. That will take some time.

Let me know as I can help further. I'll be out of the office at an early morning meeting until about noon.

Thank you Yonah!!
